CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to our amazing Nature Quiz team who last week won the regional final of the local school rounds. Their knowledge of all things nature related was astonishing and this is a credit to their own hard work and research and to the help they have received from Lorna Zaltowski and Ruth Harris. They have now earned themselves the opportunity to compete in the Gloucester County Finals Competition, where they will compete against other local school winners from all around the Gloucester district. Well done to all of them!

On Monday 24th June children have School to bring in a filled jar of exchange they can come into school in been asked by the Friends of Hartpury sweets to sell at the school BBQ and in non- school uniform.

FOHS

Please come along to our Victorian Summer Fair on Friday 28th June 6-8pm. There will be lots of exciting stalls, a BBQ and a bar. Any raffle donations would be greatly received, such as, wine, bubbles, smelliest etc. Thank you to the ones already received. Non uniform day is Monday the 24th June, please fill up a jar of sweets and bring it in with you and wear non uniform for the day. The clothes bank is very successful, we have already had it emptied. Many thanks for all your support. Please spread the word around as any money raised will benefit the school.

Ice creams are again proving very popular - every Friday 3.15pm we are in the play- ground selling delicious ice creams for £1 and 50p. Please keep checking our friends facebook page with the latest news.

Well done to Class 3 -Winners of this week's attendance cup!
